

CONFLICT RESOLUTION WORKSHOP AND SYMPOSIUM 12 - 16 AUGUST 2014

Dr. Joseph Ozawa, a clinical psychologist from California was here in Toowoomba to conduct a series of conflict resolution workshops with faith and community representatives. It culminated with a symposium, jointly organized with the Sea of Faith.

Dr. Joseph Ozawa giving a keynote address

A group photo of the participants at the symposium on 16 August 2014

Group photo with faith representatives in Brisbane at the 'Managing a Multifaceted Response to Disaster' workshop held at the Uniting Church Centre

Facilitating the workshop for faith representatives

Dr. Ozawa chairing a panel discussion

MH17 SPECIAL SERVICE - 28 JULY 2014

Toowoomba's faith communities united to pray for the victims of the MH17 disaster at St. Patrick Cathedral. The prayer service ended with a candle-lighting ceremony.

Prayer service in session led by Bishop Cameron Venables

Our faith representatives seen with the Mayor of Toowoomba

TOOWOOMBA LANGUAGES & CULTURES FESTIVALS - 10 AUGUST 2014

We participated in this iconic festival held at Queens Park. The crowd that visited our Peace and Harmony stall came up with written messages conveying the peace message.

Peace and Harmony Stall. Some of the messages were 'Smile', 'Love others', 'Speak words of encouragement', 'Make friends' and 'Acceptance'.

Vegetarian Food Stall

Watch out for our upcoming forum on Friday, 10 October 2014.

Details will be out soon!

We invite you to come and join us at our Community Friendship Dinner on Saturday, 13 September 2014 at 5pm, which The Venerable Master Chin Kung will be hosting.