Exploring and Experiencing Multifaith Hospitality – 30 August 2017

Australia's richness and wealth lies in its diverse multicultural communities sharing a common space. Diversity is a gift, that when used well will lead to strength. Creating opportunities for the youth to explore and experience multifaith hospitality has become an important initiative for Toowoomba. Bringing students together to visit places of worship, is not only a personal development, but also a spiritual gain to understand other's beliefs and practices.

Some of the feedback from participants

What have you gained from this visit?

- The visit has provided an insightful experience that allowed everyone to explore different religions and cultures.
- That the common focus of these three different religions is the dignity of each human and the desire for all to succeed in life.
- Different values and perspective of faith and God in the different religions.
- I now know more about different religions that I did not know were in Toowoomba.
- Sense of community spirit closer to God.
- I have learned a lot between the varying cultures-but most of all the commonalities we share between religions.

What is your favourite part of today?

- Experiencing the hospitality of the different religions
- The different cultural foods
- I liked experiencing the different traditions and hearing from youths
- Experiencing the different practices associated with the religions
