EVERYONE MATTERS - TOOWOOMBA, A MODEL CITY OF PEACE & HARMONY

Graduation Ceremony: Certificate II in Hospitality

March 2020, Issue 97

Our guest-of-honor, Andrew Wielandt delivering his address and congratulating the students on their successful completion in Certificate II in Hospitality.

Celebrating International Women's Day

Pure Land Learning College Association was invited to the St. Ursula's College International Women's Day Breakfast. Sophie Ryan, our youth Ambassador and mentor of Toowoomba Youth Peace Group was the guest speaker and spoke on her journey as a peace advocate and her international exposure after leaving school.

Women's Morning Tea

It was a fun bonding exercise among the ladies in Toowoomba at the morning tea organized by Red Cross Australia Toowoomba. Keep a look out for future morning teas!

Visit to Pure Land Learning College Association

The Red Hats Society and the managers at St Vincent's Hospital visited Pure Land Learning College Association in March. It was a very enriching for us to exchange notes and understand each others' roles in serving the community.
