Yumin Bah Conference

Jul – Aug 2021, Issue 106

On the 8th July 2021, the Garulbo Committee hosted the first ever Inaugural First Nations conference: Yumin Bah – Talking Place.

The Yumin Bah conference demonstrated our local regions wealth of First Nations knowledge and history. Participants included representatives from our Traditional Custodians, The Jarawoir, Giabul and Wakka Nation, our Elders, Community and the Pure Land Learning College. The theme of, "Healing country, Healing Ourselves" was well supported with a smoking ceremony on entry followed by informative presentations from local Elders, cultural heritage practitioners, artists and Words of Wisdom from the Eminent Professor Venerable Master, Chin Kung AM, President/ Founder of PLLCA.

The Chairperson for the Garulbo committee the organizers for this conference, Kim Walmsley, spoke of the importance for the First Nations Voice though dialogues, collaboration, connections, and empowerment.

The success of this Yumin Bah conference has progressed to a strategic planning day to develop a 2-year Strategic Road Map and Action Plan that will enable and support our First Nations Voice.
